QUEST Undergraduate Scholarships

Get help to move your career forward and stand out from the crowd by applying for a scholarship from ICE's flagship fund - The Queen's Jubilee Scholarship Trust (QUEST).

If you're planning to begin a civil engineering degree you can apply for this prestigious award in the spring before you start your course.

QUEST scholarships have supported thousands of people through their studies and are recognised by employers as a sign of excellence.

Great reasons to apply for a QUEST Undergraduate Scholarship

As a QUEST scholar you'd get:

Up to £8,000 over the course of your study

Paid work placements every summer* giving you valuable industry insights, experience and contacts

The potential for a full-time job with a leading civil engineering or construction company when you graduate

The badge of being an ICE QUEST Scholar which is great for your CV and your career

*Only scholars who are supported by QUEST sponsor companies have guaranteed work placements, scholars supported by QUEST or the CF Lunoe Trust will need to source their own summer placement.

"The scholarship was hugely beneficial. I was able to put theoretical studies into practice on the annual placements and start forming positive relationships in my company for the future."

Terri Seel MICE, Morgan Sindall Infrastructure

“A highlight has been the work placements as I’ve got to develop my skills on projects and also gained knowledge that I could apply to my studies. Also, the financial support has been very helpful too of course!”

Adam Glew, University of Edinburgh

We’d like to thank all of the QUEST Undergraduate Scholarship sponsors for their support

Atkins, BakerHicks, BAM Nuttall, C F Lunoe Trust, Costain, Environment Agency, Ferrovial, Galliford Try, Graham, Hochtief, Laing O’Rourke, Morgan Sindall Infrastructure, Mott MacDonald, Peter Brett Associates/Stantec, Tony Gee & Partners LLP, Taylor Woodrow (VINCI Construction UK) and WSP.
